Nature inspired carpet collection

Nature, with its materiality, its colors and its sensations inspired the Physis Collection.

Collection

This collection reflects the harmony between the earth and the art of craftsmanship, where the authenticity of natural materials blends with the warmth of hand-knotting techniques.

The eight models, crafted from pure wool, bring us back to the essential and enveloping warmth of nature. The textures, inspired by organic forms, create a sense of balance and serenity, transforming any space into a welcoming and inviting environment.

An invitation to reconnect with the natural world through design and craftsmanship.
