Moroccan inspired carpet collection

Marrakech Collection was born taking inspiration from Moroccan's Berber carpets and with the aim to describe an old story in a contemporary way.

The tradition of berber carpet weaving has been handed down from mother to daughter for millennia, telling unique tribe's stories. Each rural village has its own narration made of lines, models and colors that recall the past.

Therefore, the beauty of these carpets has to be found not only in their appearance but especially in the stories they tell.

Design creates culture.
Culture shapes values.
Values determine the future.
- Robert L. Peters

COLLECTION

Through the inspiration of the desert, the burnt sand, the intense colors and tents enriched with handmade carpets, the Marrakech Collection wants to evoke this precious tradition.
